

St. Ignatius Loyola Regional School

Summer Reading Requirements for Students Entering 3rd Grade

Book 1: Choose a book from the list provided or any book that interests you and is at your reading level.

★ Read the book.

★ Take the AR quiz when you finish reading the book. (before the first day of school)

3rd Grade Summer Reading Book Possibilities

*You may choose to read any book that interests you and is at your reading level.

Here are some suggestions:

Fiction Books

Horrible Harry series
Geronimo Stilton series
Bailey School Kids series
Spiderwick series
My Weirder School series
Beverly Cleary books
The Math Wiz (Duffey)
Matt Christopher books (sport themed stories)

(mysteries)

Ghost Buddy Series
Cam Jansen series
A-Z Mysteries series
Jigsaw Jones series

(historical fiction)

Magic Tree House series (not Knight at Dawn or Revolutionary War on Wed.)
I survived series
Little House Early Chapter Books series

Nonfiction Books

Who Would Win? series
Who / What Was series
The I am ____ series
National Geographic for Kids
Step 3 or 4 biographies

Book 2: Knight at Dawn by Mary Pope Osborne

★ Every student must read this book before the first day of school.

★ We will go over some of the vocabulary words on the first day of school.

★ DO NOT take the online quiz with the Accelerated Reading program over the summer for this book. We will take it as a class on the second day of school.

2020 TOWER OF BOOKS SUMMER READING CHALLENGE

1. Read books.
2. Make a list.
3. Bring the list to school.

We'll see how high we can build our tower.

Can we reach as high as the Eiffel Tower? Or the Space Needle?

Check back here each week and we'll take a tour of towers around the world.

This challenge is for everyone! Teachers, parents, aunts, uncles, grandparents... ask everyone to build the tower!